CLEAN INDIA MISSION : RURAL DEVELOPMENT LEADERSHIP UNDER UNNAT BHARAT AABHIYAN (UBA) AND NDLI CLUB TREE PLANTATION DRIVE AT SASEWADI UNDER (UBA)

Webinar on 'Clean India Mission : Rural Development Leadership' was conducted under 'Unnat Bharat Abhiyan' and 'NDLI Club of BPHE'S IMS, Ahmednagar'. The Resource Person was Padmashri Popatrao Baguji Pawar, Sarpanch of Hiware Bazaar, a Gram Panchayat in Ahmednagar district of Maharashtra, India. He led Hiware Bazaar's transformation from a drought-prone village to a green and prosperous model village, thus successfully reproducing Anna Hazare's Ralegaon Siddhi model of village development. The guest speaker elaborated his dedication towards village which has become self-sufficient and stands as a model for modern urban and rural governance, his work towards water conservation over the decade and Panchayat Raj system. The villagers changed cropping patterns and resolved to stop growing the water guzzling sugar cane, opting for vegetables, pulses, flowers and fruit cultivation. He further talked on education to all, environment conservation, sanitation campaign, ending open defecation in rural areas, community solidarity, computer literacy programmes, de-addiction treatment, and right to vote by being part of Government decision-making process. The 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyan' is a massive mass movement that seeks to create a Clean India. After the online session a Swacchta Pledge was taken by the staff members of IMS, Ahmednagar to fulfill Mahatma Gandhi's vision of Clean India.

OBSERVANCE OF NATIONAL UNITY DAY

National Unity Day is celebrated on 31st October to mark the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. The library had pictorial display of his life, history, achievements, along with the book jacket. This activity helped to introduce users to his work and information about unity, security, especially in the building of India. The pledge was taken by the faculty, administrative & library staff. Dr. Vikram Barnabas, Deputy Director read aloud the oath in English Language and Mrs. Sharayu Kulkarni, Office Superintendent read it out in Marathi Language. On campus Covid-19 guidelines were strictly followed.

LIBRARY ORIENTATION

As a part of the Information Literacy Programme, the IMS Library hosted a tour and orientation event for freshmen on 5th, 6th & 10th Jan 2022. The goal was to inform newcomers about the library's activities, services, and functions, as well as the rules and regulations, in order to improve library service utilization. The purpose was to introduce the newly enrolled Library user to membership, resources, personnel, facilities, services, clearance, donations, best practices, and e-resource usage, among other things, through organizations such as NPTEL, NDLI, DELNET, and N-List Consortia. Students were urged to take advantage of the Library's specific study materials and book bank sets, as well as join the Telegram Group to take advantage of the Library's online services. Students' admission and exit were coordinated in accordance with COVID-19 SOP rules of face masking and social distancing. Users on the IMS Telegram group were sent a 6.13 minute video clip from the Library. Personal attention, interaction with library staff, and incentive are used to encourage students to use the library, thereby instilling reading habits and self-study.

NSS - ETI DIGITAL LITERACY

The Empanelled Training Institute (ETI) of BPHE'S, Ahmednagar College, Ahmednagar (ACA) provides an extension programme for National Service Scheme (NSS) Program personnel. From January to March 2022, Librarian Dr. Swati Barnabas offered an online and offline programme on 'Digital Literacy' and a tour of the IMS Library. There were nine batches in total, each with approximately 35 individuals. The ETI-NSS Programme Officers are from several districts across Maharashtra, which makes this activity unique. The approach promotes the use of digital resources and the importance of libraries as knowledge centres. It inspired officers and educators to promote reading habits, support informal education, boost self-esteem, establish gender equitable attitudes in students, and encourage self-help. Because the workshop is instructive and demonstrative, the volunteers who are pursuing research are well-versed in ICT tools and usage.

MARATHI BHASHA SAMVARDHAN PANDHARAWADA

From January 14 to 28, 2022, the IMS - Library commemorated the fortnight of Marathi Language Samvardhan (conservation). E-books pertaining to the Marathi language were uploaded to the 'Calibre' e-library, and users were given remote login information via an online orientation session, Telegram Group, and other social media platforms. Metadata such as key names, author, publisher, and series are used to sort e-books. The archive is available for download and offline use. There are 138 Marathi language eBooks in the genres of fiction, biographies, poems, essays, sports, hobbies, fine arts, history, current events, politics, and inspiring published by many prominent Marathi writers and authors. The Mumbai edition of the Marathi language Free Press Journal 'Navshakti' e-newspaper in Marathi Language was made available online.

MATRUBHASHA DIWAS

On the occasion of Matrubhasha Diwas (Mother Language Day) on February 21, 2022, the IMS Learning Resource Center (Library) and the IT department held an online "Monologue" competition for IMS staff and students. It was commemorated in order to promote linguistic and cultural variety, as well as the use of our native tongue. The event was entertaining and promoted the use of Indian languages. 'Mother Tongue' was the topic of the virtual monologue. The winners of the three cash awards were chosen based on traditional attire and three minutes of speaking in their mother tongue. Gandhi Kripa Devendra, MCA - I (Gujarati), took first place in the student category; second place went to Shruta Bhate, B.Voc - I, (Marathi); and third place was shared by Rutuja Santosh Dhamne, MBA - I, (Marathi) and Bhavana Ashokrao Kavade, MCA - I, (Marathi). It discussed latest issues and points related to current scenario like COVID and libraries, CAS, E-data bases, copyright issues and like many more. The session included presentations on CAS/API, UGC guidelines for library professionals; insight on 'New Education Policy 2020'; libraries after COVID; 'Resource Sharing and E-resource' & on Copyright. The feedback session was very fruitful. The questions raised in online presence of 200 Indian Librarian participants were satisfactorily answered. E-Certificate was distributed by email.

- DELNET Best Practices - Data Sharing and Accessibility 2021-22 : IMS library has joined DELNET (Developing Library Network, New Delhi) who recently launched an initiative of best practices for data sharing and accessibility to the member libraries. It significantly helps to contribute in enhancing information sharing facility of library resources to users. This further promotes IMS library for making a digital India. Data sharing equates to access to information by the students, faculty and scholarly community. By participating in the program and sharing our book records the library is accessible to our users as well as worldwide member libraries of DELNET. It gives more visibility and recognition and power to IMS library. The users can access records through the web in DELNET's, 'New Discovery Portal' as the data of each library is assigned a specific location code. The Library has been provided 'Certificate of Appreciation' for promoting the best practices of data sharing and accessibility and helping in achieving the desired outcome of teaching learning and research activities.
